

NEW MOVE TO BE MADE FOR IRISH PEACE

Leaders of North and South to Attend Conference With British Officials Tomorrow

NEITHER SIDE EAGER

Collins Disclaims for Provisional Government Any Desire to Participate in the Meeting

(By the Associated Press)

London, March 27. — The acceptance today by the Ulster government of the invitation to attend the Irish conference in London cleared the way for a gathering Wednesday at which the British government will make a determined effort to bring the North and South into accord on some basis which will make for peace in Ireland.

Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and Eamon J. Duggan will represent the South and Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, and several members of his cabinet, the North. The British representatives will be Winston Spencer Churchill, the imperial colonial secretary, and other members of the government, and perhaps Premier Lloyd George himself.

Border Truce Suggested.

Whether the imperial government has any plan of its own to put forward has not been divulged; but there is talk in official circles that the government will suggest a truce on the border to give the Southerners and Ulsterites ample time to discuss a basis for the settlement of the frontier and other vexatious questions.

Neither the Ulsterites or Free State appear to be eager for the conference. Mr. Collins, in a statement issued in Dublin this afternoon, expressly disclaimed any desire on the part of the provisional government for it. At the same time, he attacked Sir James Craig for alleged breach of faith in connection with an agreement reached at their recent meeting. He referred to the promise of Sir James to reinstate Catholic workers expelled from Belfast.

Lloyd George Taking Rest.

Mr. Lloyd George arrived in London this afternoon from Criccieth, Wales, where he has been resting for the last two weeks. His physicians say he has gained wonderfully from his brief vacation and is returning invigorated. Lloyd George will not resume his usual activities immediately, however, and it is understood that, after one night in London, he will go for a few days to his country place, Chequers Court, where he will further consider the plans for the Geneva conference and prepare for his speech to the House of Commons a week from today when he will seek a vote of confidence.

During his brief stay in London, the premier will naturally consult with his colleagues in the cabinet and is likely to have an important talk regarding the Geneva conference with the Italian foreign minister, M. Schanzer, who came to London over night from Paris.

Brigade Staff Mutinies.

Dublin, March 27. — The brigade staff of the Irish Republican army at Athlone today left the military barracks after having refused to obey orders from general headquarters. The men declared that they recognized only the new executive committee chosen Sunday in the meeting here.

UP TO THE PRESENT TIME, THE MEN OF THE BRIGADE ARE REMAINING LOYAL TO GENERAL HEADQUARTERS.

CONGRESSMAN PARRISH OF TEXAS DIES OF INJURIES

Wichita Falls, Texas, March 27. — Congressman Luelan W. Parrish of the 14th Texas district, who was injured in an automobile accident near Lohay, Texas, on the night of March 5, died here tonight.

Congressman Parrish was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the senate and was on a speaking tour when the automobile in which he and a companion were riding went off a bridge. He suffered a fractured skull in addition to other severe injuries.

Mr. Parrish was brought to a hospital here, where attending physicians did not regard his condition as serious. For several days he showed improvement but later his condition was complicated by an attack of cerebral meningitis. He then became gradually weaker.

NEW YORK CITY WILL BEGIN DAYLIGHT SAVING APRIL 30

New York, March 27. — New York will begin saving daylight Sunday, April 30, at 2 a. m., when all clocks will be advanced one hour. This was announced today by Acting Mayor Sulzer, who said inquiries had come from other cities as to what New York would do on daylight saving. A continuing city ordinance gives the city daylight saving each summer automatically.

GOVERNOR DENIES JIM LARKIN PARDON

Irish Agitator Must Serve Out Sentence for Criminal Anarchy, Miller Rules

Albany, March 27. — Governor Miller has denied the application for a pardon of Jim Larkin, the Irish agitator, convicted of criminal anarchy, and serving a sentence at Clinton prison. Announcement of his decision was made by the Governor today.

Larkin's attorney, Louis A. Healy of Brooklyn, had told Governor Miller that if Larkin were set free he would return to Ireland, where, it was said, he had a large following, and would be a potent force in uniting the Collins and DeValera factions.

It was the wish of Mr. Healy and Larkin's friends that the prisoner might be set at liberty on St. Patrick's Day.

In denying the application for a pardon for Larkin, the Governor wrote a memorandum in which he pointed out that one of the principal grounds for the appeal to him for executive clemency was that Larkin did not have a fair trial. The Governor said that this was a judicial question, now on appeal in the Court of Appeals, and that pending the settlement of this question any action by him would be "premature."

After reciting that Larkin was convicted of criminal anarchy and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than five nor more than ten years, and that three others, Benjamin Gitlow, former Socialist member of assembly, Isaac E. Ferguson and Charles E. Rutenburg, were likewise convicted and sentenced, the governor's memorandum said:

"The judgments of conviction have all been affirmed by the appellate division, and appeals therefrom are now pending in the court of appeals. Larkin's appeal having been taken on March 8, 1922."

"One of the principal grounds of the appeal to me for executive clemency is that Larkin did not have a fair trial, but this is a judicial question to be settled by the courts and, with an appeal to the court of appeals pending, the application to me appears to be premature. I am advised that the appeal can be brought to argument as speedily as the defendant's counsel is prepared to move and that the delays to date have not been caused by the people."

"The application is denied."

VILLAGE TRUSTEES IN THROES OF WAR

Republican Chairman Refuses to Give Up Chair to Democratic Nominee in Elmsford 'Scrap'

Elmsford, March 27. — Heavily armed guards patrolled about the town hall tonight, keeping 200 residents from breaking in upon the stormy deliberations of the town trustees, who were in the throes of civil war as the result of a local election last Tuesday.

George R. Fox, Republican, and chairman of the trustees, refused to give up the seat to Dr. John R. Evers, Democrat, and World War veteran, who claimed to have been elected to the office by 28 votes. Mr. Fox refused to cede the seat to Dr. Evers tonight, contending that his opponent had been illegally elected inasmuch as his name did not appear on the village's assessment rolls.

Interested villagers were confronted by 14 armed guards when they sought entrance to the hall and none but officials and Dr. Evers, with his lawyer, were allowed entrance. The guards—deputy sheriffs and state constables—had been placed by order of Mr. Fox.

The result of the meeting was not divulged, but Dr. Evers declared he would ask the supreme court to oust Mr. Fox.

SUGGESTS PASTORS STRIKE TO RID SELVES OF OVERWORK

Cincinnati, March 27. — Before a meeting of the Cincinnati Methodist Minister's Association today, Dr. W. H. Wehrly suggested a strike of ministers of religion, which means, he said, of ridding themselves of many of the demands which are made upon their time.

He said that the time taken up by these church activities should be devoted to communion with God and to study of that which is best in religion and philosophy. He said that of his personal knowledge more than a hundred Methodist pastors had broken down under their tasks in the past few years.

MRS. MARY WENDT APPOINTED GUARDIAN OF HER HUSBAND

Los Angeles, March 27. — Mrs. Mary Wendt was appointed guardian of the person of her husband, William Wendt, the capitalist, of Los Angeles and Buffalo, and Frank Kelsey of Los Angeles was named guardian of Wendt's estate, by Judge James C. Rives in probate court here late today.

ESCAPES DEATH ONLY TO BE REWARDED BY HIS ARREST

New York, March 27. — After he had ducked five bullets fired at him by an irate woman, Aurelio Fazio, a barber, was rewarded today by being arrested for ownership of the weapon.

Mrs. Conzetta Gausetta, who, police say, admitted firing the shots after a lovers' quarrel, was held on a charge of felonious assault.

RICKARD DENIES GIRL'S CHARGE

Maintains During Long Cross-Examination He Never Misconducted Himself as Alleged

WIFE DEFENDS HIM

Visited Beside Her Sickbed During Hours in Question, She Tells the Jury

New York, March 27. — Tex Rickard denied tonight before the supreme court jury trying him on a charge of having assaulted 15-year-old Sarah Schoenfeld that he ever had miscondacted himself with her. The stories told about him by Sarah and her 12-year-old chum, Nellie Gasko, the sports promoter contradicted almost in their entirety.

During the long cross-examination which will be resumed tomorrow, Rickard swore he never had improper relations with women of Alaska or Nevada during the gold rushes in those sections.

"It never happened," he said, when Assistant District Attorney Pecora asked if he had not lived with a woman at Nome, and then abandoned her. He made the same answer when asked if he had not tried to induce a 15-year-old blonde cigar girl to go to a room with him at Hawthide, Nevada, 15 years ago.

"Did the girl's mother threaten to shoot you?" Pecora inquired.

"It never happened," said Rickard.

Denies Nevada Outrage.

He also denied that a 14-year-old girl in Ely, Nevada, had once been wronged by him and that after the girl was sent to a hospital when about to become a mother, her own mother had committed suicide.

"I never heard of any woman committing suicide over me," Rickard remarked.

The promoter testified that he and Mrs. Rickard were married at Seattle in 1902. He first went to Alaska in '06, he said, and had divided his time there for several years between prospecting, mining and operating saloons and gambling houses in the Klondike, Dawson City and Nome.

Mrs. Rickard came to the defense of her husband, testifying that he was dining in their apartment and visiting beside her sickbed there during the hours on the night of last November 12 when Sarah and Nellie said he was with them in an apartment in 47th street. It was on that night that Rickard is alleged to have assaulted the Schoenfeld girl. Other witnesses swore Rickard was at Madison Square Garden after leaving his home that night.

Knew Hundreds of Girls.

Rickard admitted having seen Alice Ruck, Anna Hess and Nellie Gasko, complainants against him in three pending indictments, around the Garden swimming pool last summer. He said he had talked with and knew hundreds of little girls who swam in the pool.

He might have given them money to buy lunches, he asserted, but denied ever having presented to Sarah and Nellie the sums of $10 to $25 which, they said, the promoter gave them on several occasions. Rickard said he remembered Nellie because he had suspected her of stealing from the women's dressing room at the Garden and had instructed a guard to watch her.

He denied having taken Sarah and Nellie automobile riding last January two days after his arrest on the Rickard girl's complaint, or that any of the youngsters ever had been in his car.

He recalled having seen the Schoenfeld girl four times, each occasion he said in connection with her mother's efforts to get Rickard's aid in trying to have her son released from a Wisconsin jail.

Walter Fields, the man who leased the restaurant in which Rickard was alleged to have miscondacted himself with Sarah, formerly worked at the Garden almost every day but Rickard said he did not know his present whereabouts. Since his arrest Rickard admitted, Fields had not worked regularly.

DAN CUPID LOSES HIS FIGHT IN IOWA VILLAGE ELECTION

(By The Associated Press.)

Charlotte, Iowa, March 27. — Dan Cupid lost his election fight in Charlotte today, all women candidates for city offices being defeated.

During the campaign, a number of mothers with marriageable daughters, supported by the daughters themselves, announced that the girls' young men friends must support the women's ticket or stop courting the young women.

Election officials are of the opinion that a majority of the men voted for the women candidates and that it was the heavy women's vote that defeated them.

PIRST MUST STAND TRIAL

Montreal, March 27. — Rev. Adolphe Delorme today was formally committed for trial on the charge of murdering his half brother, Raoul, last January by Judge Cusson in police court.

Gustav Monet, counsel for the priest, renewed his suggestion that the accused was not in a fit mental condition to undergo a trial and contended the judge had no right to proceed with the case until the question of sanity had been settled.

CORNELL MARKSMEN WIN.

Boston, March 27. — Cornell's pistol team won from Boston University in the first shoot of the season. It was announced today, Cornell made 1,088 points out of a possible 1,250, while Boston U. scored 810.

SEVEN MEN INDICTED IN ALLEGED N. Y. TAX FRAUD

New York, March 27. — Seven men were indicted today on charges of attempting to defraud the government through evasion of payment of fur manufacturers' sales taxes.

Morris Rosenblum, former deputy internal revenue collector, who in 1920 pleaded guilty to a plot to defraud the government through bogus income tax returns, was sentenced to serve three months' imprisonment on that charge today. It was alleged that while out on bail awaiting sentence he planned the fur tax fraud, which the government claims may total $2,000,000.

PONZI MUST FACE BAY STATE COURTS

Supreme Court Rules Presence in Jail Does Not Prevent His Appearance

Washington, March 27. — Charles Ponzi, whose financial exploits in Boston resulted in his plea of guilty in November, 1920, to the federal court to one of two indictments and his sentence to imprisonment for five years, must stand trial in the Massachusetts courts at this time on 22 indictments charging him with certain crimes under the state laws. It was held today by the supreme court in an opinion delivered by Chief Justice Taft.

Ponzi fought trial in the state courts while a federal prisoner. The United States district court at Boston last May denied his petition for a writ of habeas corpus and he appealed to the circuit court which asked the supreme court for instructions as to whether a federal prisoner may, with the consent of the attorney general and while serving a sentence of imprisonment, be taken into a state court and be placed on trial upon indictments then pending against him. It was this question which the supreme court today answered.

JAKE SCHAEFER DEFEATS HOPPE

Extremely Spectacular Play Marks First Block of 1,500 Point Chicago Match

Chicago, March 27. — Young Jake Schaefer, world's 18.2 ballline billiard champion, tonight defeated Willie Hoppe, former title holder, 600 to 466, in the first block of the 1,500 point match.

Score by innings:
Schaefer 8 9 252 40 145 11 9 1 34
Total 600. Average, 50.
Hoppe 2 14 55 114 9 260 5 2 1 x
Total 466. Average, 51 7-9.

The play was extremely spectacular, both men doing some wonderful work and each throwing away chances to win near the end through off-color work. Schaefer's work was the more brilliant, the champion giving a splendid display of shot-making. Hoppe excelled in consistent position play.

Hoppe's 260 run in the sixth inning unsettled Schaefer, but neither player was able to take advantage of the other's misplays, both missing miserably in the last few innings.

PACKER'S SON ACCUSED OF DRIVING AUTO WHILE DRUNK

Chicago, March 27. — Lewis E. Swift, Jr., son of the meat packer, today was free on a bond but scheduled to appear on Friday before the police magistrate of Evanston on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. Swift was arrested yesterday after his automobile had collided with another car and was held four hours at the Evanston police station until his brother William appeared and furnished $200 cash bond.

Swift denied the charge of intoxication. He explained that the accident was due to a slippery pavement. Accompanying Swift was his sister-in-law, Helen Morton Swift, wife of William Swift and a young woman friend.

The car struck by the Swift machine contained four high school students, none of whom was injured beyond bruises.

GERMANY WILL "DECLINE" DEMANDS MADE BY ALLIES

(By The Associated Press.)

Berlin, March 27. — Chancellor Wirth today told the members of the federated states and reichstag leaders representing the majority Socialists, Democrats, Clericals and the German People's party, that the German government would inform the Allied reparations commission that the 60 billion marks tax levy was not feasible and that financial control of Germany as stipulated in its note of last week also must be declined.

WEINBERG FOUND GUILTY OF IMPERSONATING OFFICER

New York, March 27. — A federal jury tonight returned a verdict of guilty against Stephen Weinberg, erstwhile secretary to Dr. Adolf Lorenz and the Princess Fatima, who had been indicted for impersonating an officer of the United States navy. The jury deliberated four hours after Weinberg testified that Weinberg was a sufferer from "exaggerated ego."

He will be sentenced on Saturday.

JEWELL OPENS R. R. PAY FIGHT

Present Principle of Wage Adjustments Unjust, Shopmen's Head Tells Labor Board

IS MILDLY REBUKED

Chairman Barton Criticizes Union Chief for Asking Board So Many Questions

Chicago, March 27. — U. M. Jewell, head of the railroad shop crafts, before the Railroad Labor board, opened rebuttal for the employees against the answer of the railroads last week to the union charges that the railroads in seeking wage reductions, had not held proper conferences with the men, as required by the transportation act.

The board ruled last week against the employees' request that the wage reductions petition be thrown "out of court" on the basis of the charges and today Mr. Jewell asked the board to make a public statement of its reasons for so ruling. Mr. Jewell asked several other questions which caused Chairman R. M. Barton to remark: "I do not think it is within the jurisdiction of Mr. Jewell to quiz this board."

The chairman indicated he saw no reason why the board should issue any public statement.

Holds System Unjust.

Characterizing the present principle of wage adjustment as unjust, Mr. Jewell told the Labor board that costs and wages should remain constant, even to the elimination of profits, and that, until that economic basis was accepted, conflict between capital and labor would continue.

Mr. Jewell opened his fight against general wage reductions sought by 25 railroads before the board today. He treated as irrelevant all carriers' arguments of lower living costs and lower wages in other industries, asserted the "so-called law of supply and demand will never afford a living wage in a system organized according to modern business principles" and declared for a living wage for all productive workers of the country.

Interest and profits must not continue while the working man suffers low wages and unemployment. Mr. Jewell asserted in presenting his theory of the living wage. A guaranty of steady earning power to the wage earner, even at the expense of immediate profits, he added, "would go far toward eliminating these recurrent periods of depression."

Challenges Justice.

"We have come here to challenge the justice of the wage rates of all productive labor, to challenge the very principle upon which the railroads propose that rates of pay be adjusted," said Mr. Jewell. "We propose to show how the entire purpose for which industry is operated can and must be changed."

"The existing wage scale is insufficient to enable the adult to maintain an ascertainable minimum of decent living. The railroads are saying to their employees: 'We cannot afford to pay a living wage, while we say that the railroad must pay at least that.'"

"Out of the annual yield of any industry," Mr. Jewell continued, "three things are being paid, cost (including supplies, depreciation extensions, taxes, etc.) wages and profits. Two of these, we say ought to be constant cost (reduced to an economical figure) and wages at a level which will allow full human life, inclusive of art, literature, music, recreation and social life, such as are enjoyed by the well-to-do. This leaves profits as the sole variable factor and frankly contemplates a situation in which temporarily they may have to cease. Until that situation has been accepted the conflict between capital and labor will continue."

SPRING FEVER HAS DECIDED EFFECT ON JOBLESS' MARCH

New York, March 27. — Spring fever today made unnecessary elaborate precautions taken by the police to keep possible disorder in a double-barreled parade of unemployed scheduled to march upon City Hall with demands for jobs.

There was no disorder and there was scarcely any parade.

One branch of the parade—seven weak—set forth from South street. The second branch—with nine in line—passed away from Seventh street and Third avenue. They joined forces in Chinatown and, alternately picking up recruits and dropping them, wound up in front of City Hall with a total of 27. Police permits which their leaders carried stated that 2,000 might take the stroll.

Guarding the surviving 27 were 50 police foot, a dozen horses, six department of justice agents, several members of the bomb squad, and divers police inspectors, captains and lieutenants. Surrounding and threatening to engulf the parade, were hundreds of workers out for lunch.

G. E. FOREMAN KILLED WHEN CAUGHT IN ELEVATOR CABLES

Schenectady, March 27. — William Fryer, foreman in charge of a construction gang at the General Electric Works, was killed in an unusual manner today. He had been working on the roof of one of the buildings and stepped into an elevator housing to seek shelter from the rain. The elevator was started in operation and Fryer's feet caught on the cable. The man was drawn onto the revolving drum and the heavy steel cables wound about him, killing him instantly.

MINERS' DEMANDS ARE CONSIDERED

New York Conference Admits Inability to Reach an Agreement Before Strike Starts

New York, March 27. — The anthracite miners and operators' subcommittee on wage contract negotiations today abandoned their general discussions of the industry and got down to the 13 demands of the workers.

Negotiations of the day were restricted to the second part of demand No. 1, relating to establishment of a scale for operators of mechanical loaders, and demand No. 3 which says:

"In conformity with the thought expressed in the award of the United States Anthracite Coal Commission, we demand that a uniform wage schedule be established so that the various occupations of like character at the several collieries shall command the same wages."

The miners restricted the discussion to presentation of a vast array of statistics as evidence in support of their demands.

The chief demands of the miners port the end of the anthracite situation—the demand for a 20 per cent increase in wages throughout the industry and a raise of $1 per shift for day laborers—will be breached before the committee late tomorrow or Wednesday, union members of the committee announced.

Operators refused to comment on the present status of the negotiations, but to agree on 50 per cent of the demand of a new contract in time to halt suspension of the anthracite mines April 1 is not in sight.

"The data for a complete presentation of our case is in our hands," said Thomas J. Kennedy, labor member of the committee. "We are now ready to put it up to the mine operators."

Ten thousand members of the International Seamen's union in the port of New York are awaiting the return of their president, Andrew Furuseth, from Washington tomorrow to decide whether they will interfere with the proposed transportation of British-mined soft coal to help break the strike of the bituminous miners, also set for April 1.

The union, according to L. A. Parks, president of the local organization, has its men on 50 per cent of the vessels flying the American flag and 100 per cent of the United States shipping board's craft are manned by its members.

Coincidental with the seamen's preparations for action, Joseph Ryan, vice president of the International Longshoremen's association, asserted today that its 15,000 members aimed to "render every possible assistance to the United Mine Workers."

"Any means we might decide upon," he said, "undoubtedly would include our refusal to handle coal shipped in from foreign mines, as well as our moral and financial support of the American workman."

LOCKWOOD BILL BECOMES A LAW

Governor Miller Puts in Busy Day Signing Measures Passed by Legislature

Albany, March 27. — Governor Miller today signed a bill introduced by the Lockwood housing committee which extends until April 1, 1923, the time for commencing the construction of new dwellings, which shall be free from local taxation for a ten-year period. It is the first of the nine bills by the Lockwood committee which passed the legislature upon which the Governor has acted.

He signed the other eight Lockwood committee measures still before the governor have been set for April 10.

Thirty-two bills passed by the legislature became laws with the Governor's signature today. Among them were:

The Moore bill, making it a misdemeanor to use a representative of the national or state flag, standard, color or emblem on business stationery.

The Dickstein bill to require persons seeking to be hawkers or peddlers to file with their license application a photograph of themselves.

The Ferris bill requiring the pasteurization of all milk from tubercular cattle whether used for human consumption or for feeding other animals.

The Walton bill, extending until January 1 next, the power of the convention representing the judiciary and the bar, which is charged with the consideration and recommendations of rules for the simplification of civil practice.

STRANGLER LEWIS RETAINS HEAVYWEIGHT MAT TITLE

Kansas City, Mo., March 27. — Ed (Strangler) Lewis retained the heavyweight championship wrestling title tonight, throwing Yousif Mahinout, Bulgarian challenger, in two falls, both by use of the headlock. The first fall came in 44 minutes, 22 seconds; the second in one minute and two seconds.

MARSHAL JOFFRE ARRIVES AS "ENVOY OF PEACE"

Victoria, B. C., March 27. — Marshal Joffre of France, here, in his own words, as "an envoy of peace," arrived at Victoria from the Far East today on the liner Silver State.

The hero of the Marne came as an ordinary passenger, he explained. His only mission, he said, was "solely in the interests of a permanent and lasting peace." During his tour of the United States and Canada, he will speak for peace.

PUBLIC SMOKING BY WOMEN PUT UNDER THE BAN

Police Commissioner Enright Orders Arrest of Violators of New Ordinance

'WARMLY' GREETED

Detectives Get "The Raspberry" When They Attempt to Enforce Ruling

New York, March 27. — Police Commissioner Enright tonight issued orders for members of the police department to arrest any proprietor or manager of a hotel, theatre, cabaret or other place of public entertainment who permits women to smoke publicly in his establishment.

The commissioner's order was issued pursuant to the text of an ordinance passed recently by the board of aldermen and signed last week by Mayor Hylan.

Groups of detectives and policemen immediately started out on tours of amusement places and resorts in Greenwich Village, Harlem, the Bronx and along Broadway, where blue haloes of cigarette smoke had been curling around the heads of women smokers since early evening.

They passed the news along to the resort keepers and its announcement brought boos and groans. There had been no warning of such an order and it was taken as a joke by many. The skeptical were notified individually by policemen, however, and they joined the others in treading their rage under foot.

"Good-bye, sweet dreams," sighed one bobbed-haired young woman as she blew a smoke ring into the face of a detective and flipped her cigarette over her shoulder. "What joykiller is responsible for this? And me with a new gold dig case worth $25."

Women Finally Convinced.

In the luxuriously-furnished women's smoking room of a theatre on Broadway the announcer of the order received what the flappers call "the raspberry." The loungers blew smoke in his face, gave him three rounds of sarcastic ha-has, and chased him.

He brought back a policeman and the manager, and the women were convinced.

Everywhere the announcement raised a storm of indignation. The cry of "Author! Author! Who's the author of this blue law?" was raised—and went unanswered.

The ordinance provides that "no person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or controlling either as proprietor or manager, any hotel, restaurant, place of public entertainment, or other public resort in the city of New York, in which people meet and congregate, whether for the purpose of refreshment or entertainment, shall allow any female to smoke in such place."

Violation of the ordinance is punishable by a fine of from $5 to $25, or by an imprisonment of not more than ten days, or both.

Proprietors and managers of newly-opened women's exclusive smoking rooms in fashionable, ultra-fashionable, and unfashionable sections of the city, seeing in the ordinance the ruin of their business, intimated that they would carry their fight against it to the highest state courts.

Greenwich Village girls, who scornfully when she heard the news, "Piffle," she said, "Might as well try to stop us from using rouge—it's a habit."

Author Finally Found.

Alderman Peter J. McGuinness was identified later as author of the ordinance. He admitted it. He declared, however, that he was absent from the board meeting the day it was passed and didn't know one solitary thing about it until informed tonight.

"Of course, I never knew anything about it until now," he said. "It's queer to me how it passed. Those lean, long-necked guys were never in favor of it. They have no backbone. I don't believe it passed. You're kidding me. I may be the beneficiary of a clerical error. But say, I'm tickled."

Many well-known men and women of the city denounced the ordinance as "unconstitutional."

Their opinions follow:

Mrs. Olive Stott Gabriel, lawyer and Republican leader—"I don't smoke because I'm just old-fashioned enough not to want to. But I oppose every infringement on the rights of men or women. This ordinance is worse than the eighteenth amendment."

Mrs. Nellie Beebe, political leader in Brooklyn—"It's a good law if they can enforce it. But it will make women smoke all the more just like the prohibition law made men drink all the more."

Miss Lillian Sire, Democratic leader,—"I think it's an outrage. I believe the law will be repealed."

SCHENEVUS SOUNDLY BEATEN

Worcester Basket Ball Team Closes Season with 40-19 Victory.

Worcester, March 27.—Worcester basketball team ended the season Saturday evening with a victory over the Schenevus quintet. The locals started with a rush and piled up a big score in the first half, but the visitors staged a comeback in the last session and cut down the margin. Both teams were handicapped on the slippery floor.

34 vs. 66

Swift's Premium Ham and Swift's Premium Bacon are produced from only the best hogs. Many of the animals we buy do not furnish meat of Premium quality.

Since these are the choice cuts from the best hogs, cured and smoked in the best way, with scientific care and precision, they are naturally in great demand; but these cuts, with the loin from which pork chops come, represent only about 34 per cent of the live animal.

The remaining 66 per cent consists of the cheaper cuts, such as spare ribs, shoulders, trimmings, pigs' feet, lard, etc., and shrinkage in dressing and curing. Shrinkage is equal to one pound in each five, and has no value whatever.

That is why the prices of "Premium" Ham and Bacon and pork loins are higher than the price of the live animal.

Everybody wants them—and yet they are only about one-third of the entire weight. "Premium" Bacon alone is only about 8 per cent.

The great demand for the choicer cuts, and the smaller demand for the cheaper cuts, constitute the reason for the comparatively higher price of the one-third, and the lower price of the other two-thirds. (Some of the lower priced cuts sell at less than the per-pound price of the live animal.)

It is only by utilizing all possible by-products and exercising the utmost skill and efficiency that we are able to average a profit of a fraction of a cent a pound on all our business.

WOMAN CAPTURES WILDCAT

Animal Scratched Some, but She Was Victorious.

Mrs. Myra K. Peters, manager of the Sylvan Lake hotel, at Sylvan Lake, S. D., was the heroine of an exciting incident recently.

During her stay at the lake this winter, Mrs. Peters made friends with a small wildcat, and it became so friendly that it would eat out of her hand and even sit in her lap while eating.

The wildcat would come every morning for its morning meal, and Mrs. Peters became quite attached to it and decided to keep it there and tame it. While she was feeding it in her lap one morning she threw a robe over it and put it in a safe place to keep it. While doing so she was considerably scratched trying to hold it, but she now has the animal in captivity and is going to tame and raise it for a pet.

CROSSING UNITED STATES

Couple Drove Oxen From Connecticut on Long Trip.

The days of the "prairie schooner" were recalled by Brownstown, Ind., recently when a man and woman reached there driving three oxen.

They were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berang, who were on their way from West Chester, Conn., to California. They have been on the road since December 1, 1920, and do not expect to reach their destination until the spring of 1923.

One yoke of oxen was hitched to a house-like wagon, fitted up with a gas heating and cooking outfit. The other ox was used to draw a smaller wagon, on which was loaded a shelter tent, food, etc. The couple pay expenses by selling postcards of the outfit.

Mosquito Plague in Alaska.

Alaskan mosquitoes do not act as carriers of malaria and yellow fever as do those of the United States and tropics, but they are very vicious. They literally fill the air. In one sweep of an insect collecting net about his head, Dr. Aldrich was able to capture 110 mosquitoes by actual count.

Tree's Bark Resembles Lace.

The inner bark of the lacebark tree, growing in the West Indies, separates after maceration in water into layers resembling coarse lace. Frills and ruffles made of it were sent from Jamaica as a present to Charles I. The bark is used in making ropes and whips.

MASK WORN AT TABLEAUX

BY BRITISH SOCIAL MENTOR

This grotesque mask, used by one of the leading British mentors of society at a recent charity tableau, caused consternation and fear among the patrons of the affair. Only after the lady had removed the mask, showing that underneath it was the beautiful face of the wearer, was order restored.

MOSCOW NOW "WIDE OPEN"

Staid City of Czars and Repressed Capital of Early Sovietism Gone.

Moscow has become a wide-open town for the first time in its modern history. It is open for business, for sports, for holidays, for fun, for disease and disaster, for speculation, for drinking, for any and all things man or woman may devise.

The old-timers of the staid prewar regime cannot recognize anything but the snow. It used to be, before the war, a sort of country, family town as compared to the gay St. Petersburg.

During the revolutions it lost this friendly aspect of quiet and, as the soviet settled down here, it became strictly moral and severe, with only the grand opera to lighten the load of propaganda and thousands of orders on how to live and prosper and be happy, notwithstanding closed shops, lack of bread and medicine and clothes.

A Russian Rip Van Winkle who had slept during the last three years wouldn't know the town these nights. Church bells ring out for prayers. Communists and bourgeois, peasants and princesses are all scrambling for more money that they may not fall into the abyss of famine. Cabmen are fighting for higher rates, grain dealers for more rubles a bushel, bakers for more a pound, candy and confection shops are blooming out in every corner, wine and vodka are sold in military shops and the eighty policemen of the town have long since quit bothering with footpads. The lid is off.

"The Thirty Tyrants"

"The Thirty Tyrants" was the name given to an aristocratic body which usurped the government of Athens 404-403 B. C. The most notable was Critias. Their rule was overthrown by the democratic party under the lead of Thrasybulus. The same name is also applied to the body of pretenders to the Roman empire under the reigns of Valerian, Gallienus, etc. Outstanding among them were Tetricus and Odaenathus.

Egyptian Architecture.

In the furniture world the massiveness and stability of the Egyptian furniture as far from our century-old ruins is as well known as the time-defying pyramids and sphinx are to every school child. Art critics are quite agreed that the old Greco-Roman houses were the most perfect in line, harmony and utility of any ancient dwellings. But they are equally agreed that the Egyptian architecture runs a close second.

Cards One Thousand Years Old.

The statement, often repeated and apparently very generally believed, that playing cards were invented and first used to distract the melancholy Charles VI of France is not correct; there is a pack in the British museum known to be more than 1,000 years old and there were undoubtedly Japanese and Chinese cards in the Twelfth century.

Glacier Movements Differ.

The most rapidly moving glacier of the Alps, the Mer de Glace, travels at the rate of 3 1/2 inches a day. The slowest Alpine glaciers travel less than an inch a day. Much faster movements are found in the polar regions. The Upernivik glacier, in Greenland, travels 90 feet a day near the end where it reaches the sea.

Wave Returns Man It Swept Overboard

Gordon Woodbury, former assistant secretary of the navy, was swept overboard from his yacht and then returned by the same wave when the vessel encountered rough weather off Cape Charles, Va. Several members of the crew were rescued after being thrown off the ship, which was badly damaged by the storm.

Tripping Costs Girl a Leg.

Wappingers Falls, N. Y.—Jessie Bonner, fourteen years old, has lost her right leg as the result of being tripped by a schoolboy when she was walking in the aisle in the schoolroom, nine weeks ago. Blood poisoning set in, and amputation was necessary.

MARKET WAS LOWER;

FEW ISSUES IMMUNE

Favorites React One to Three Points, and Speculative Shares to Greater Degree

New York, March 27.—Only a few selected issues were immune from pressure in today's moderately active and lower stock market. So-called favorites reacted one to three points and some less popular and more speculative shares suffered greater losses.

Signs of a weakened technical position and greater discrimination on the part of investors, together with a falling-off of public interest, provoked an intensification of bearish aggressions, especially in steel, equipments, oils, motors, sugars and kindred shares.

With the progress of the session, rails of the investment type, as well as Junior transportations, were singled out for sporadic attacks. Partial recoveries in the last hour were due to bidding of the chain store and merchandise issues, together with short covering in sugars and low-priced oils.

Incidents over the week-end favored both sides of the account. The number of idle freight cars was further reduced and western railroad centers reported a cheerful tone over the trend of business. Among the many February railroad earnings submitted, those of Atchafalaya, Louisville and Nashville, Baltimore and Ohio, Lehigh Valley, and New Haven showed substantial gains in net returns.

Coppers and the general metal market continued to ignore the increased foreign inquiry. Call money held at 4 1/2 per cent until the final hour, the rate then easing to four per cent. Advances and declines in the foreign division were typical of the irregular trend of the bond market. French 7 1/2s and 8s, and Argentine 5s were higher here, while Swiss governments and municipals eased from one to two and one-fourth points.

Liberty issues showed losses the first half of the session, but closed for the most part at gains. Rails were active, especially convertibles, but in that quarter the trend was indefinite. Cuba Cane 7s and 8s strengthened, but Atlantic Fruit 7s, Chile Copper 6s and several of the utilities were lower.

Thoughts for the Children.

To help a child to become unselfish, self-reliant, kind, thoughtful, considerate, honest, and independent; to train to habits of usefulness; to promote purity of thought and life; to have even some small part in awakening loftier purposes and higher aspirations; to arouse in the minds of boys and girls an honest and sincere hope to be able to make happier the school, the home, the community, the state, the nation, and the world—should be the greatest ambition of every teacher.—R. C. Barrett.

The Best Cough Syrup

is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of water; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never soils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy cures a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, looses the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ACCIDENTS LAID TO U. S. PEP

Enormous Increase in Berlin Street Mishaps Shown Since Before War.

Berlin.—The fact that street accidents in Berlin have increased 600 per cent since 1913 has led to the suggestion that one of the causes may be the apparent effort to put American "pep" into the city's everyday life. One newspaper writer asserts Berliners have become too busy to greet friends in passing, that the spirit of haste is disturbing the general routine, and that the citizens on the whole are growing nervous. He deprecates "the attempt to make Berlin street life look like Forty-second street and Broadway."

Official reports say most of the accidents are due to speeding automobiles and careless pedestrians, "who step off the sidewalks and walk the streets in every direction without once looking to see if they are in the way of vehicular traffic."

There is no ordinance regulating pedestrian traffic. Even at the more crowded intersections the people cross the streets at will, taking their chances with the automobiles, street cars, omnibuses, trucks and horse cabs. There are no traffic policemen in the German metropolis, but it has been decided to establish such force. Meantime the "security police" are doing this duty.

The bicycle habit is very popular with all classes, and particularly with the police, who ride in squad formation. It is not uncommon to see a man rigged out in top hat and evening clothes riding his "bike" to the theater.

Testing Child's Musical Ability.

Musical ability in a child can be well judged by testing five faculties: The sense of pitch, which is the ability to discriminate between higher and lower tones; the sense of time or rhythm; the sense of consonance, which is the ability to tell what is more pleasing and what is less pleasing; the sense of intensity; and musical memory, or the ability to remember a number of tones from hearing them once. Those qualifications are probably in large measure inherited, for very young children sometimes have them.—Youth's Companion.

Otsego County News

MARTIN M. MILBERT DEAD

Well Known Otsego County Man Passes Away Monday Morning at Schuyler Lake.

Schuyler Lake, March 27.—Martin M. Milbert, a highly respected resident of this village and widely known in Otsego county, passed away at his home here this morning at about 8 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of serious nerve and heart trouble. He was born in the town of Burlington on May 30, 1859, a son of Bernard and Madeline (Rufendorf) Milbert, and nearly his whole life had been spent in the town of Burlington. He moved here last November from West Burlington and purchased the Henry Patrick place in this village. For several years before coming here he had been postmaster at West Burlington.

Housewife Becomes New Woman

"All of our best doctors had given me up. I was unable to leave my bed for 10 weeks and was yellow as a pumpkin. Besides the terrible stomach pains I suffered, our dearest and my husband to try May's Wonderful Remedy and it has saved my life. I am a new woman now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince of money refunded. Druggists everywhere.

and also ran a small grocery store, both there and at Burlington Green after retiring from farm work. Mr. Milbert was twice married, his last wife being Minnie Price Brady, whom he married 19 years ago and who survives, together with three daughters, Katherine Milbert, who lives at home, and Mrs. Floyd Curry of Burlington, daughters by his former marriages, and Miss Ruth Milbert, by the last marriage. He was a man of sterling qualities and had made many friends during his short residence here who deeply regret to learn of his death.

Mr. Milbert also leaves two brothers, Charles of this village and Damon of Burlington Flats; and three sisters, Mrs. William Spencer of West Burlington, Mrs. George Banks of Little Falls, and Mrs. Alfred Sponable of Champlain, and one grandson, Francis Curry of Burlington; also several nephews and nieces. The funeral arrangements had not been made at this writing.

Death of Former Resident.

Word has been received here of the sudden death from heart trouble of Lottie Judd at his home in Nebraska. He was born in this vicinity and was a son of the late Cornelius Judd of this place and when a young man he went west to live but had been back here several times to visit. He leaves his wife and several children; also one sister, Mrs. Samuel Downs, of Richfield Springs; and two brothers, Stewart Judd of Cleveland and Del Judd of Richfield Springs.

Lottie C. Judd of this village is a nephew.

"Mr. Bob" a Big Success.

The home talent play, "Mr. Bob," given in Bullion's hall Friday evening for the benefit of the Parent-Teacher association of the town of Otsego, was a decided success and the proceeds were $120. The members of the cast took their different parts to perfection and the play was a scream from start to finish. Schuyler Lake orchestra furnished some very fine music during the play and for the dance which followed.

With the Young People.

There will be an April Fool social Friday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church for the benefit of the Y. P. S. C. E. Don't come if it hurts you to laugh. Catering luncheon will be served. All cordially invited.

The box and bonnet social held in the Methodist Episcopal church last Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Junior Endeavor was largely attended and a fine time was enjoyed by all. Proceeds, $39.

The topic for the Y. P. S. C. E. next Sunday evening is "Better Bible Reading." Consecration service. Leader, Mrs. M. H. Wackerly. Junior topic, "Put on the Armor." Leader, Frances Washburn.

Among the Sick.

Harris Milbert, who had been quite ill with an attack of appendicitis at the home of his father, Charles Milbert, is better.

Emerson Winters is quite ill with pneumonia. George Rose and Miss Nora Hadsell are also quite ill with cold.

Philip Craft is quite seriously ill with abscess on the kidney.

In Memoriam.

In fond and loving memory of my dear wife, who passed away March 28, 1921.

Personal Notes.

FORMERLY OF WEST ONEONTA.

Mrs. Ella Sands of Bainbridge Dies at Home of Sister in Unadilla.

West Oneonta, March 27.—Relatives and friends in this place received word today of the death of Mrs. Ella Sands of Bainbridge, at the home of her sister, Mrs. David Drew, of Unadilla. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Drew. Mrs. Sands had been seriously ill for a long time and in order that medical attention might be more convenient she came several months ago to the home of her sister in Unadilla. The deceased, whose maiden name was Ella Simmons, was a native of Bainbridge and was about 70 years of age. She was twice married, her first husband being Dr. Josiah Northup of West Oneonta, who died about 40 years ago in Richmond, Va. She was located subsequently to the marriage. Her second husband was Dr. Sands of Bainbridge.

Mrs. Sands is survived by one son, William Northup of Bainbridge, with whom she resided, and the sister above named. Mrs. Sands' father, who this place was a doctor, with her for a week prior to her death.

Those who are ill.

The many friends of Mrs. M. C. Miner will learn of her critical illness—pneumonia at the Free Baptist parsonage in this village. She has been in a serious condition since last Thursday, and no change for the better is noted. She is attended by Dr. Pomeroy, with Miss Henderson, a trained nurse, in charge. Mrs. Miner's daughter, Mrs. Warren Russell, of Kings is with her.

Among others who are reported as being seriously ill are Daniel Baker, Mrs. Bert Niles, Ford Arnold, G. C. Chapin and Ruby Simmons, all of this village and vicinity.

AGED RESIDENT OF DELHI.

Mrs. Janet Almlee Irving Dies at Home of Daughter, Mrs. W. T. Black.

Delhi, March 27.—Mrs. Janet Almlee, widow of the late Henry Irving, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Black, on Delaware avenue, yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. She was 89 years of age and had been in feeble health for some time. Death was doubtless hastened by a fall which she sustained some weeks ago, causing a severe shock to her system, though no bones were broken. She had been confined to bed since and has steadily failed. Her funeral will be held at the home Wednesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Mr. Crawford of the Episcopal Church, L. P. church, where she and her husband were for many years valued members. The interment will be in the cemetery at the Flats below this village. Mrs. Irving was of sturdy Scotch ancestry, a woman of strong Christian character and many admiring traits. She is survived by the daughter mentioned, and one son, Robert, Irving of Boston, Mass., and two sisters, Miss Nancy Almlee of Delhi and Mrs. Anna Douglas of Washingtonville. The late John A. Irving, former supervisor of the town of Bovina, and one of the leading farmers of that township, was her son.

GIRL HAD PAINFUL TIMES

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial."—STELLA NEWTON, R. R. 8, Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter, and it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure her.

THE SICK MAN OF EUROPE.

For a nation which has been called for some scores of years "the sick man of Europe," the Sublime Porte shows amazing vitality. An ally of Germany throughout the world war and perhaps the greatest of the smaller thorns in the side of the allies, she has managed to keep firm foothold on the greater part of her territorial possessions, and this in the face of the abhorrent slaughter of Christians and starvation of women and children which has marked her course. There was hope that at the war's end the Turks would be as geographical boundaries as concerns the world, and that the latest, or Paris conference, however, decides to maintain alike the religious and secular power of the Sultan of Europe giving to him Constantinople and adjacent territories on the Bosphorus and a large part of eastern Thrace. There are two apparent reasons for this. One is the attitude of Greece since the war which has precluded the assignment of any extensive territory to her, and the other is the known fact that the bonds of the Turkish government are held largely in England.

THE AMERICAN NAVY.

It is entirely proper that the United States should stand at once to reduce the personnel of its navy to the extent agreed upon between herself, England, France and Japan in the treaty for the limitation of armaments; but there is no reason why she should go beyond the letter of that treaty, particularly as the other powers do not intend to do so. The navy of the United States is active personnel of 55,000 men. If Congress does not increase its appropriations will consist of only $5,000,000. The navy of the United Kingdom will have 95,500 men in it and there will be 75,840 in the Japanese navy. This will leave the United States third in the list, instead of the first. The demand of President Harding is that the navy minimum be fixed at $5,000, and this certainly appears small enough.

PARTIES IN INTEREST.

There is no doubt that there are three parties concerned in the coal strike question. One is the miners' union, another the operators and a third the public itself. As a general proposition it does not appear that the two former, however they may assuage each other, are much concerned as to how high the price may go, since in the end the advance must come out of that patient beast of burden, the general public. The third party, however, is the sufferer, and on him the entire burden is eventually laid. For this reason it appears that he should take vital interest in the fight as it goes on. He will be the ultimate loser or gainer as the case may be, and he should be interested in the contest, bearing in mind always that a time when everything else is going down is no time for coal and coal miners' wages to go up.

GERMAN TOLD OF WAR.

According to an estimate arrived at by a leading German statistician, German professors are long on statistics, the death toll of the late empire was 46 killed and wounded in every hour from the beginning to the war's end. The German loss in dead was 1,808,548, and in wounded was 4,256,775. While of the number under arms, the total killed was one in every seven. The German civilian and military losses, directly or indirectly through the war are estimated by General Von Albrecht at 32,000,000. These are not figures, but they are compilation will be of value not only to Germany but to any nation which in days to come may feel stirring within itself a desire for world conquest.

TO IMPROVE DISTRIBUTION.

Conservation Commission Adopts Uniform Classification of Fish.
Albany, March 27.—The Conservation commission has adopted uniform definitions for the classification of all fish sent out from its hatcheries and has notified all hatchery foremen to observe them in filling applications for fish.

Fry—Are defined as fish up to the time the yolk sac is absorbed and feeding begins.
Advanced fry—Fish from the end of the fry period up to one inch in length.

Fingerlings—Fish one inch in length up to the yearling stage.
The various sizes of fingerlings to be designated as follows:

No. 1—Fish one inch in length and up to two inches in length and up to three inches in length.
No. 2—Fish two inches in length and up to three inches in length.
No. 3—Fish three inches in length, etc.

Who Wants Black Walnut Trees?

Albany, March 27.—A special opportunity is offered to anyone who wishes to plant black walnut trees. The New York Conservation commission is advised by J. W. Calland, forester of the Miami Conservancy district that, owing to a change of plans in relation to flood prevention work in the Miami valley, he has 100,000 one-year-old black walnut trees that he can supply at practically the cost of digging, saving and hauling. $1.50 per hundred in lots of 500 to 2,500, or $1 per hundred in lots of more than 2,500.

He Must Wear Something.

THE PRESS AND THE PUBLIC

Teaching Music Not a Nuisance.
On application for an injunction against a vocal studio, brought by the occupant of the house next door, has been dismissed by Justice Newburgh, of the New York supreme court. The studio is in the Murray Hill residence district of New York and a part of the complaint was that receiving pupils in music was a violation of the agreement preventing the use of property in the district for business purposes. On this point the judge decided that "any occupation which may leave the building of the general character of a private house is not a breach of the agreement. The teacher testified that she used only the back parlor on the second floor for pupils. To all intents and purposes, therefore, the house remained a private residence.—[Philadelphia Inquirer]

Conditions in the Country

The series of special articles being published by the Dispatch from Edward G. Lowry, the well known publicist, describing agricultural and business conditions in Western States are based on personal observation during a painstaking tour of the sections. Mr. Lowry brings to his work the authority of an established reputation as a student of economic and political affairs, and it is the more gratifying to find that his survey generally is so encouraging.

City Mothers in Des Lacs.

North Dakota took a 'flyer' in Nonpartisan administration and reported. Now the town of Des Lacs in that enterprising state, is going for nonpartisan government. In the municipal election it has intrusted most of the important offices to women—chairman of the village council, two trustees, treasurer, marshal and justice of the peace. "Bigger, better and cleaner Des Lacs" was the women's campaign slogan.—[New York Tribune]

Germany in a Recklessness.

What the Reparations Commission has determined on amounts practically to putting Germany into the hands of receivers. Germany makes a default. It declares it cannot pay the two billion gold marks due this year. The Reparations Commission being a committee of creditors, agrees to grant a moratorium for a year, provided Germany pays about three quarters of a billion marks in gold nearly a billion and a half in materials, and reforms its financial management. To make sure that it does the last, the Committee on Guarantees will reside in Berlin instead of Paris, will supervise the national treasury and the Reichsbank and will install reforms.—[Philadelphia Record]

COLLEGE FOR CITIZENSHIP.

Training Young Men for Leadership by Lieut. Col. Frank B. Edwards.

The Star has received from Norwich University at Northfield, Vt., a very interesting and well printed booklet, containing in addition to a tribute to Norwich university under the caption, "A College of Citizenship," an excellent article contributed to the National Service magazine for March upon Training Young Men for Leadership by Lieut. Col. Frank B. Edwards, professor of military science and tactics at the university and well known here and a former resident of Oneonta.

The magazine article is descriptive of the military training and the working of what has come to be known as the "Norwich System of Student Government." Copies of the booklet will be sent to any desiring to read it on receipt of request.

The closing paragraphs of Col. Edwards' article are as follows:
It would do every red-blooded American good to visit Norwich university and be present at one of the daily chapel exercises and see the simple but impressive ceremony of reverence for God, our country, our flag, and the representatives of law, order and authority. He would leave with a feeling that these young men could be counted upon to their last drop of blood to defend the principles of democracy either upon the field of battle or in their peaceful duties of citizenship.

The literature of our country has not seen fit to provide any system of universal military training and this should spur to greater effort the advocates of preparedness. Every effort should be made by these patriotic Americans to increase the capacity of the few essentially military colleges that are doing all in their power to prepare young men for the duties of citizenship.

No young man has fully fitted himself for the duties of citizenship until he is as well prepared to defend his country as he is to earn a living in it. Citizenship involves many obligations as it does rights and benefits. This is impressed upon the minds of the Norwich cadet from the day he first enters the university grounds.

One of the first sights to catch the eye of the new student or the visitor to Norwich is a bronze tablet on the stone gateway, with the following inscription:

This institution was founded upon the principle that a citizen soldier is essential to the maintenance of free government.

Throughout a hundred years this principle has been cherished, and the men have here learned that obedience to law is liberty. In the centuries to come let all who enter through this gate be faithful to the past.

General Leonard Wood said of this college: "The splendid thing about Norwich is that she has always kept the faith."

FARM-MADE FERTILIZER BEST

Clover and Proper Handling of Manure Give More Plant Food Than Mussel Shells or German Mines.

The New York farmer doesn't by any means have to depend on the much-talked-of Mussel shells plant for his nitrogenous fertilizer, nor on German mines for his potash according to the state agricultural college at Ithaca. Farmers in this state could produce more nitrogenous fertilizer from the air at a more rapid rate than Henry Ford ever hopes to at Mussel shells, and if they were efficiently managed these farm fertilizer factories would supply more available potash than is normally imported from Germany.

Limestone and acid phosphate have often been found necessary for complete efficiency, but with them supplied the farm factories usually furnish most of the available nitrogen and potash necessary for the coming field crops. Because farmers are finding it to be true they are making their own farms more efficient producers of fertility before they begin to think of buying too much of the commercial product says the college.

Nitrogen-Making Plants.

Red and alsike clover are the more common nitrogen-fixing units though alfalfa, beans, peas and the other legumes are playing their part on many farms. Each ton of clover hay produced represents the fixation of as much nitrogen as is secured in a ton of 2-2 fertilizer. Next this clover is fed on the farm and the manure carefully conserved, much of this nitrogen is added to the soil.

To develop a high degree of efficiency in this nitrogen factory it, therefore, becomes necessary to get a large yield of clover. In many sections of the state this means lime, and almost universally it requires liberal quantities of acid phosphate on the preceding grain crops.

Where the farm nitrogen factory is adequately utilized, much is also done to increase the supply of available potash for crops. Where the soil is well supplied with potash the careful farmer returns to him a large proportion of the farm produced organic matter in some other form increases rather than lessens the supply of available soil potash.

YOUNG LOVE'S LOST ILLUSION

Woman of Oxford Lured to Stamford, Conn., by Letters of Love Weeps at Finding Correspondent 12 Years Old and a Chief.

Mrs. Emma Austin, aged 22, a native of Savannah and recently a resident of Oxford, N. Y., vowed yesterday at Stamford, Conn., that never again would she read a matrimonial advertisement. She was the heroine of a love letter which she had just received from a young man, 12 years old, who had written her under the name of "Winfield Duffield of Strawberry Hill," a special center of Stamford, wrote to her. She answered his letters in a spirit of fun at first. But Winfield wielded a love next sort of pen, and presently Mrs. Austin was an earnest, honest to goodness correspondent. Winfield pictured himself as a sort of gay young blade with plenty of wealth and the fire of youth in his soul. His letters bore out the fire of youth part of the picture.

"Would she like to meet him face to face?" wrote Winfield. "Charmed," came back the answer. The next mail carried a railroad ticket to Mrs. Austin, and she arrived at Stamford on the 7 o'clock train Friday night. But there was no dashing young knight to meet her. After waiting long at the station she appealed to police headquarters, where she told her story.

Duffield, the author of the ardent love letters, the young woman expected to find full of the fire of youth, etc., was located and brought to police headquarters. He turned out to be a chief in a Strawberry Hill mansion, and he confessed to 45 years, although he looked older. He also confessed to having been married before and to having been divorced.

When he was introduced to the young woman he had corresponded with Duffield said he was ready and willing any burning with desire to marry her, but the woman would have none of the chief. She told her aunt in a discouraged way and began to cry. So the romance ended. Mrs. Austin said that her father is a Savannah lawyer, that she married a man named L. Church in the Georgia town, but that she had been divorced from him and that she then went to live with her aunt at Oxford taking her three-year-old child with her.

Former Principal at Walton.

Rev. Sidney Crawford, a Congregational clergyman who in his earlier years was principal of the Walton academy, died Friday last at a sanatorium in Brooklyn. Graduating sixty years ago from Amherst and after working as a theologian, he came to the United States in 1882, and he held many important positions in the church. He was 65 years ago to come to Brooklyn where his son, F. Stuart Crawford, is a member of the staff of the New York Herald. The funeral was held Sunday in Brooklyn and the body was brought to Cooperstown yesterday for interment.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will find them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

REPUBLICAN STILL LIVES.

Delhi Beasts of Two Thieving Papers, Not One as Stated.

Indadvertently in clipping an item relative to the Delaware county newspapers from the Franklin Dairymen, the Star of yesterday passed along to its readers the erroneous statement that the Delhi Express now has the whole field at the Delaware county seat.

The Republican, long published by R. P. McIntosh there is still thriving and in a note to this office he says: "I am still clinging to the survival of the fittest" idea quite tenaciously and have a hope that my children will step into the breach when I do shuffle off and continue the Republican through one or more oncoming generations. I passed my 63d birthday last Friday, the 24th inst., and still put in as many hours at the helm as any of the bunch here or perhaps as many as any of the modern offices permit.

Surely The Star has discovered no indications on the part of the Republican that its end is approaching and hastens to assure all readers that the report of its demise is 'greatly exaggerated' and to express the hope that Mr. McIntosh may remain in the harness yet many years and his wish for the future of the Republican be realized.

MRS. CHARLES GRIFFIN.

Beloved South Side Woman Will Be Laid to Rest Wednesday.

General expressions of regret were everywhere heard in the South Side community yesterday morning when news of the death at 2:20 a. m. of Mrs. Charles Griffin passed away. The funeral services will be held at the family home on South Side, about three and a half miles from this city, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Johnson, a friend of the family, will officiate, and burial will be in the family plot in the Plains cemetery.

Although Mrs. Griffin had not been in the best of health for several months past, her condition was not considered serious. She was not so well last week, however, and on Sunday she experienced great difficulty in breathing. Despite efforts of physicians, she failed to rally and passed peacefully away early Monday. Valvular heart disease was given as the cause of death.

Estella L. Birdsell was born in Franklin on March 20, 1863, the daughter of Hewitt and Frances (Jester) Birdsell. Her aged father still survives and Mrs. Birdsell died only last December 5. She came to Oneonta from Franklin 32 years ago, and this had been her home ever since. During the first few years of her residence here she was a dressmaker. On November 7, 1894, she was married to Charles Griffin of Delhi, and their entire married life was passed in Oneonta, most of the time within the city. A year ago, they purchased the Elmer Allen farm on South Side, where Mrs. Griffin's death occurred.

Mrs. Griffin was a woman possessed of many kind qualities and made many warm personal friends during her long residence here, who were deeply grieved to learn of her sudden death. Although her chief joy in life was her home, yet she took an active part in both church and social work. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. A good neighbor, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, her memory will long rest with those who knew and loved her.

Besides her husband and father, Mrs. Griffin is survived by one son, Edward Griffin, a young man residing at home; and one sister, Mrs. J. L. Pope, and a niece, Miss Pearl Pope, both of 62 Church street, this city. They will have the sympathy of all of Mrs. Griffin's friends in their hour of bereavement.

DEATH OF SMITH PARISH.

Veteran Farmer Long Conducting Homestead Farm Near Roundtop.

Smith Parish, formerly and for many years conducting the homestead farm near Roundtop, south of this city, passed away at 3:30 o'clock on Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Carrington, at Meridale, where he went four months since to remain for a time. He was stricken with a shock about eight weeks since and had fallen steadily until the end. The funeral services will be held from the home of his son, Welcome Parish, at 15 Church street, where he had made his home for several years, on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Charles S. Pendleton of the Main Street Baptist church will officiate and interment will be made in the family plot at Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Parish was born on the farm he so long conducted 82 years ago and was the son of the late Welcome and Julia (Widger) Parish. He married Delcennah Humphrey of Duanesburgh, who died about 14 years ago. After her demise he resided with Mrs. William Carrington, a daughter, and upon her death about four years ago he went to the home of the son, Welcome, to reside. He was the last member of his father's family to survive, his brother, Homer Parish, having died some years ago. He leaves four children, Welcome of this city, Henry, residing in the reservoir road, Mrs. Edward Carrington of Meridale and Mrs. Asa Mumford of the Plains; and seven grandchildren. Mr. Parish was an honest industrious citizen and enjoyed the respect of all who knew him.

CLEVER MISS 1922 EVOLVES NEW TYPE OF "FASCINATOR"

Her Mother Draped Her Head to Look Alluring;
Modern Girl Drapes Her Arms

Anybody who was alive and old enough to take notice of the sartorial doings of womankind during the prudish eighties and the modest nineties, will recall without effort the "fascinators" with which lovely women were wont to swathe her head in winter, her shoulders in milder weather.

Fashioned of yarns both soft and otherwise—"ice wool" an especially prickly variety, was esteemed as ultra-smart—these little shawls, capes and scarves were as essential a part of a maiden's equipment as today her many sweaters are.

Times have changed, and so have women. Today the voracious neophyte at Fashion's shrine knows too much to bundle up her head and spoil her silhouette. Hoods and head wrappings may be cozy, but they are scarcely picturesque. And the modern girl knows that it is far more important to be always graceful, always picturesque, than even to be beautiful.

Perhaps the cleverest idea of the femme fille has had this season is the fascinating scarf which is a part of her frock—a scarf that cannot be dropped or lost, that hangs, floating panel-wise, below the hem of her skirt if she chooses to ignore it, but is thrown curiously about her throat or wrapped gracefully about her arms to suit her whim.

Manipulated by any ordinarily intelligent young person this latest scarf arrangement becomes a super-fascinator which makes the memory of the 1880 type of fascinator seem about as coquettish as a nun's habit.

LEWIS HIMSELF IS MINER'S SON

Impending Strike Will Be Fourth
Big Industrial Conflict Union
Chief Has Entered

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 27.—As the leader in the impending nation-wide coal strike, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will enter his fourth big industrial conflict. Unless present indications go awry, he will lead labor's largest strike army in the history of the United States for the strike set for April 1.

Intensities to call out more than 500,000 workers scattered throughout the United States.

Conflicts between employers and workers in which Mr. Lewis has stood out prominently, are these:

The 1919 soft coal strike of 336,000 miners, which was broken by the government, after which the miners got a 24-cent a ton increase in the wages, their largest single pay advance.

The first attempt, made in 1913-14, to unionize the steel industry. Mr. Lewis having charge of the field workers of the American Federation of Labor, the movement failed, according to union men because of widespread unemployment.

The great copper strike in upper Michigan during 1915, in which Mr. Lewis, as general field agent of the American Federation of Labor, assisted in the general conduct of the strike.

Strike troubles, however, have been only a small part of Mr. Lewis' work within the organized labor movement. In 1910 at the age of thirty he was elected a representative of the Illinois union miners, and in October 1911, he became general field agent of the American Federation of Labor, resigning in February, 1917, to become a statistician of the United Mine Workers of America. On Oct. 23, 1917, he was elected vice-president of the United Mine Workers, and on Feb. 6, 1922, became president, having for a short time previously been the union's acting president.

Since 1916, Mr. Lewis has participated in all interstate conferences between miners and operators in the adjustment of questions affecting the mining industry, and since 1917 he has had full charge of the administrative and field forces of the union in extending the organization into many non-union fields. In 1919-21, he was a member of the commission, composed of miners, operators and public men, which was created by the Illinois general assembly to revise mining laws, and in 1916 he declined an appointment from Governor Lowden as director of the Illinois department of labor. During the world war, he was a member of the National Committee on Coal Production, and later co-operated with the National Fuel Administration on problems affecting coal production and distribution. In the first year of President Harding's administration, Mr. Lewis served on the commission that correlated the work of various government bureaus dealing with the welfare of Ex-service men, and also on the commission that laid the foundation for the recent unemployment conference.

In brief, Mr. Lewis' life story is one of a miner's son, born in a coal-mining family, has become the leader of one of the most powerful labor organizations in the world. He was born Feb. 12, 1880, at Lucas, Iowa, and after attending the public schools entered the mines to work with his father. Later, he supplemented his public school education with courses of reading and study in specialized subjects, particularly economics. In his twenties, he traveled extensively through west and southwest states, advocating in coal-mining communities. He is married and has two children, a son, age nine, and a daughter, age two.

As president of the mine workers' union, Mr. Lewis has for months past been in disagreement with Alexander Howat, whom he deposed as president of the Kansas district union, and Frank Farrington, the Illinois district president, who has championed Howat's side. In these controversies, Mr. Lewis' policies have won approval when brought before the union's conventions. The factional fight, however, is a latent threat of a rift in the unity of the miners forces in event of the great strike.

WILL SHE RULE HUSBAND?

St. Kevin's Cross, Glendalough county, Wicklow, Ireland, is the spot where St. Kevin was buried.

This is probably the most ancient cross in Ireland, and a legend runs around it to the effect that the lady who could make her arms meet round the cross would rule her husband.

DRIVE OUT RUSS REDS

Persians Rid Their Country of Last of Communists.

Failure of Bolshevik Invasion of Persia Attributed to Quarrels of Three Bandit Chiefs—Russians Are Rather Cynical.

Baku, Azerbaijan.—The last of the Russian communists have arrived here from Persia, fleeing before the troops of the shah, under the general direction of the prime minister, Ghassemlou, who demanded that the terms of the Anglo-Russian treaty for both nations to let Persia work out her own destiny be observed.

Rotstein, the soviet ambassador to Teheran, has been sent home, among others.

The invasion of Persia was undertaken in 1920, the Russian communists co-operating with three revolutionary bandit chiefs of Persia—Ehsanella, Kutchik and Ravidar.

The failure of the movement is attributed here to quarrels between the three bandit chiefs.

Now that the effort of soviet Russia to sovietize Persia has definitely failed, the Russians are taking a rather impartial if not cynical view of the events during the last year. They maintain that the 60 or so little shahs, or feudalist landlords, each with his court and army, continue to weaken the central government by their quarrels and ambitions, and that, so long as they have any power, no nationalist movement is possible and Persia will remain almost in the same condition as England of centuries ago under the barons.

Aside from the Anglo-Russian treaty, a multitude of reasons are given for the Red failure in Persia. One is that the soviet freedom to work, including abandoning of the chadrah, or veil, pleased the women, but not their husbands, and made many enemies for the soviet.

Another reason was that the Russians mistook the feudalists for reformers. These persons were ready for any revolution that would overthrow the power of the shah, until they realized that communism would wreck their own estates.

The merchant class at first welcomed the communists, only later to grow cold, as they saw the fruits of a division of property, house requisitions and other odds and ends of communism.

Yet another reason was that the peasants themselves, trained in the Islamic law to respect property, refused to accept a division of land belonging to their landlords.

The First Strikes.

Certain popular movements in the Middle ages bear resemblance to strikes such as the disturbances in England in the second half of the Fourteenth century. More like the modern strikes were the contests between journeymen and guildsmen, in both English and continental towns. History tells of the riots among woolen workers in Florence during the time of the Medici. But as a social problem, as a part of the industrial system, strikes belong to the Nineteenth and Twentieth centuries.

You've Got to Hit the Bull.

The bullfinch feeds on the bottom of the sea and when he is hooked he allows himself to be drawn toward the top without very much of a protest. The struggle commences the instant his nose emerges from the water and the possibility of a fight is anticipated by a hard blow on the head. This blow must be sure and hard for if there is any compassion for the fish he is as good as gone, for any opportunity to struggle means its escape.

Wage is Less Than Soap Cake.

London.—Monthly salary of a nurse in the municipal hospital in Moscow is less than the cost of a cake of soap in that city. This striking example of the disproportion between wages and the cost of living in the Russian capital is disclosed in a report just made by a special commission sent to Russia by the health committee of the League of Nations.

A cake of soap in Moscow costs 8,500 rubles and nurses in the city hospital are paid 5,000 rubles a month.

DELAWARE COUNTY NEWS

son, a native of Delhi but for many years a respected resident of Franklin township, died Sunday evening, March 26, at the home of his son, Clifford Davidson, of South Franklin. The funeral services, on account of the serious illness from influenza of the son above named, will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Rowell of Franklin, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The body will be placed in the vault here for later interment in the family plot at Delhi. Rev. Harlow Parsons will be the officiating clergyman.

Mr. Davidson was born 73 years ago on Platter Brook in the town of Delhi and was a son of George and Margaret (Dunn) Davidson. He was married about 46 years ago to Miss Margaret Mein of Mercedith, and since that time his home had been mostly in the towns of Hamden and Franklin. He was by occupation a farmer, though for a few years he conducted a country store at Mundele.

Besides the two children above named he is survived by two brothers, Douglas of Ravinia Center and Allen Davidson of Willets, Cal., who are the last to survive of a family of eleven children. He had for many years been a member of the Mundele Presbyterian church. His wife died about ten years ago, and for the past two or three years he had resided with his son.

Mercedith, March 27.—The Sunday school contest was won by the boys. The celebration was on Friday night and gave equal praise to both boys and girls for their faithful work. Mr. Gold was master of ceremonies and is equally efficient as superintendent or as leader in sports. Committees did faithful work. Movies of high grade (six reels) gave fine entertainment to the youngsters. Lots were drawn for eating companions. The school is eager for the next contest which will be conducted on a somewhat different plan, but with even greater enthusiasm than the last.

Other Mercedith Matters.

Miss Hazel Rogers returned to her studies at Northfield seminary on Monday.—Rev. S. E. Carr of Walton will preach at Mercedith church next Sunday night in the absence of the pastor.—Smith Parish, father of Mrs. E. J. Carlington, is ill at this writing. No hopes of his recovery are entertained. Sympathy is felt for the waiting ones.—Floyd Warren was operated upon in the Fox Memorial hospital at Oneonta last week. While conditions are serious he has displayed good courage and recuperative qualities in the past. All hope he will prove equal to this present battle.—The World Wide Guild will meet on Saturday with Miss Dorothy Odell at Mrs. Delemeter's.—Luther Frisbee spent the week end with his family in Oneonta.—Miss Gwendolyn VanDenburgh was home from school at Oneonta for the week end.

Purity ICE CREAM

Give a Child Ten Cents

And it is a ten to one shot that he will spend it for sweets. To spend in his chosen manner is a normal child's way of self expression.

Therefore be sure that his dime goes for a sweet that will not only satisfy him, but at the same time provide the food elements necessary to the health of the growing child.

Advise him to spend his dime for
